

Please Join Us for a
Legal Update Seminar and Open House
Presented by Smith, Currie & Hancock LLP

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2017

Legal Update Seminar
3:00-5:00pm

Le Méridien San Francisco
333 Battery Street
San Francisco, California

Open House Reception
5:30-7:30pm

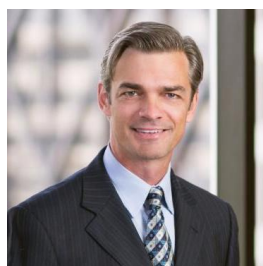

Smith Currie San Francisco
275 Battery Street, Suite 1300
San Francisco, California

TOPICS AND SPEAKERS

Avoiding Unintentional Responsibility for Design

Dan will discuss examples where contractors and designers are increasingly expected to perform to perfection standards, how these high standards creep into contracts, who is responsible for them, and how to avoid them.

Dan McLennon
415.394.6688
dfmclennon@smithcurrie.com

Dispute Management

Jay will discuss techniques and contract provisions that contractors and owners can use to avoid disputes and then efficiently resolve them if they do arise during a project.

Jay Houghton
415.249.0869
jrhoughton@smithcurrie.com

Insurance and Bonding Update

Craig's presentation will focus on the ins and outs of payment and performance bonds, along with the general indemnity agreement that owners are often required to sign personally in connection with such bonds.

Craig Wallace
415.394.6688
cwwallace@smithcurrie.com

It's Miller (Act) Time: Suit on the Bond May Go On, Even When the General Contractor Has Contract Defenses

Scott and Brian will discuss recent case law concerning a payment bond claimant's right to proceed directly against the surety under both federal and state bonding laws applicable to public infrastructure and improvement projects, even where the general contractor may have contractual defenses to such a claim.

Scott Walters
404.582.8062
gswalters@smithcurrie.com

Brian Wood
202.735.2451
bswood@smithcurrie.com

RSVP by April 25, 2017

Jamie Ann Gossett | 404.582.8145 | jgossett@smithcurrie.com

